Rules overseeing the week of Reno Rodeo:

1. The newly crowned MRR (Lady in Waiting) will attend RR each night to be responsible for helping host visiting royalty.
2. The newly crowned MRR (Lady in Waiting) will attend the Cattle Drive and ride in on horseback the last day of Cattle Drive for the parade with current MRR.
3. The newly crowned MRR (Lady in Waiting) may sign autographs at the autograph party as Lady in Waiting. However, she will not have personalized autograph sheets, which means that she will sign Reno Rodeo Posters or items that fans bring.
4. The newly crowned MRR will wear “Lady in Waiting” sash and alternate crown during the 10 nights of rodeo
5. The newly crowned MRR (Lady in Waiting) will ride horseback with the current MRR in the RR parade if a parade is scheduled.
6. On finals night, the newly crowned MRR (Lady in Waiting) will ride horseback in grand entry. The Lady in Waiting Crown will be used to crown the new MRR. Then the newly crowned may or may not take her first lap base on conversation from Production meeting and President’s discretion.
7. If the newly crowned MRR is mounted appropriately, she MAY push cattle (at least during 1 event) in the arena during the final performance. Final determination will be made the MRRP Chairman. This allows the new MRR the opportunity to shadow and learn from the current MRR. If MRA and MRN are both in attendance during the last performance of the Reno Rodeo, the newly crowned MRR will not push cattle as there will be no more than 3 queens in the arena at any time to push cattle.
8. Both queens will attend the passing of the reins with the Presidents on the last night. At the time the President passes the reins, the current MRR will pass the newly crowned MRR the MRR crown. At that time, the Lady in Waiting Crown will be turned into the MRRP Chairman.

It will also be used to store items needed for visiting royalty and the Queen Committee during the rodeo. This is a shared RV. Anything deemed too valuable or precious to store in the shared tack stall and/or RV, must be transported home and back. MRR will not have her own tack stall or RV during the week of the Reno Rodeo.
10. The Reno Rodeo Association and the MRRP Chairman are not responsible for any lost or stolen items.

The undersigned hereby states that she has read and understood the foregoing terms and agrees to abide by the terms of this contract and the terms of the Miss Reno Rodeo Pageant Rules.
